The Way We Were

Mrs. Brown

Mrs. Brown was an important math teacher in our school for many years. Her warm smile and willingness to help always encouraged students in their quest to master a plethora of challenging math topics. As a class advisor many times over, she always put her all into making the events memorable and exciting. She will be greatly missed, but we are thankful for all the work she put into the many years that she spent in our school.

Ms. Fishman

Mrs. Fishman was always there to support students whether they needed advice regarding teachers, college, friends, or just a sugar boost. Her enthusiasm for helping those around her made her a wonderful guidance counselor and co-worker. From writing college recommendations to organizing schedules, and putting in numerous hours as a senior class advisor, her welcoming smile and hard work will not be forgotten. We will miss her endless enthusiasm and encouragement.

Dedication

Mrs. Marsh

Mrs. Marsh has always played an important part of life at Weston High School. From teaching history to directing activities and serving as the advisor for the Mountain Sports Club, she has touched the life of each WHS student in one way or another. We will never forget all of her tireless work on making school activites fun, and encouraging students to try new things. We will miss her unrelenting effort and devotion to the students at WHS.

Mr. Taggart

Mr. Taggart has been an important influence in the school. His ready advice and vivacious spirit will always be remembered. The History Office will not be the same without him. Whether teaching in the classroom or coaching on the tennis courts, Mr. Taggart has had a positive impact on every life he touched. His concern and appreciation for his students allowed many students to open up in his Senior Social Science history class. His dedicated service to the students of Weston High school will not be forgotten.

Head of State

Class Officers and Advisors

MESSAGE IN A BOTTLE. Class advisor, Mr. Banker plays the role of bartender at the 2003 Junior Prom.

ALL THE PRESIDENT'S MEN. Class advisors Mr. Banker, Mrs. Fishman, Mrs. Flynn, Mrs. Corley and Mrs. McLaren have spent countless hours helping Martha Legocki, Danny Fox, John McCarthy, Steph Shaer, and Will Bendetson to plan class activities.

The Senior Class has participated in many activities during high school including harbor cruises, trips to Six Flags, the car wash, the Sophomore Semi-formal, the all-school auction, Salvation Army Field Day, the junior prom and the senior graduation trip. They could not have done anything without the endless support from the class mothers, Mrs. Flynn, Mrs. Corley and Mrs. McLaren , or the class advisors Mr. Banker and Mrs. Fishman. The Class of 2004 is greatly in debt to each of these individuals who have graciously contributed hours of time and effort. Thank you!

BRING IT ON. Martha Legocki, secretary of the grade, challenges cars to attend the sophomore car wash, an important grade-wide fundraiser, and enlists the help of classmate and friend, Katie Poutsiaka.

DUSK 'TIL DAWN. Steph Shaer, Cullen Corley, Ashley Russo, Julie Angiolillo, Beth Yanco and Martha Legocki work hard to complete the decorations for the Junior Class Prom.

John McCarthy: President

"From the Snipaahh! missions to the all grade parties and the many class events to the early morning meetings, the class of 2004 has defined me over the last 13 years of my life."

Danny Fox: Vice President

"Building the bonfire was really fun. We had a great time with all the class activities."

Martha Legocki: Secretary

"Being class secretary for 3 of my years here has been really wonderful. I have loved working with my classmates to achieve our goals. This class has grown a lot over the years; it's been great."

Steph Shaer: Treasurer

"I had a wonderful time being class treasurer this year. All the seniors really pulled together and having such a great senior year was a fabulous way to leave Weston High."

Will Bendetson: SAC Representative

"I have really enjoyed meeting with the school committee over the past two years and expressing the views of my classmates."

Chicago
Prom

WISH UPON A STAR. Elle Anatole, Cristina Camuzzi and Jesse Starr enjoy riding to the prom and having the amazing night that they have always dreamed about.

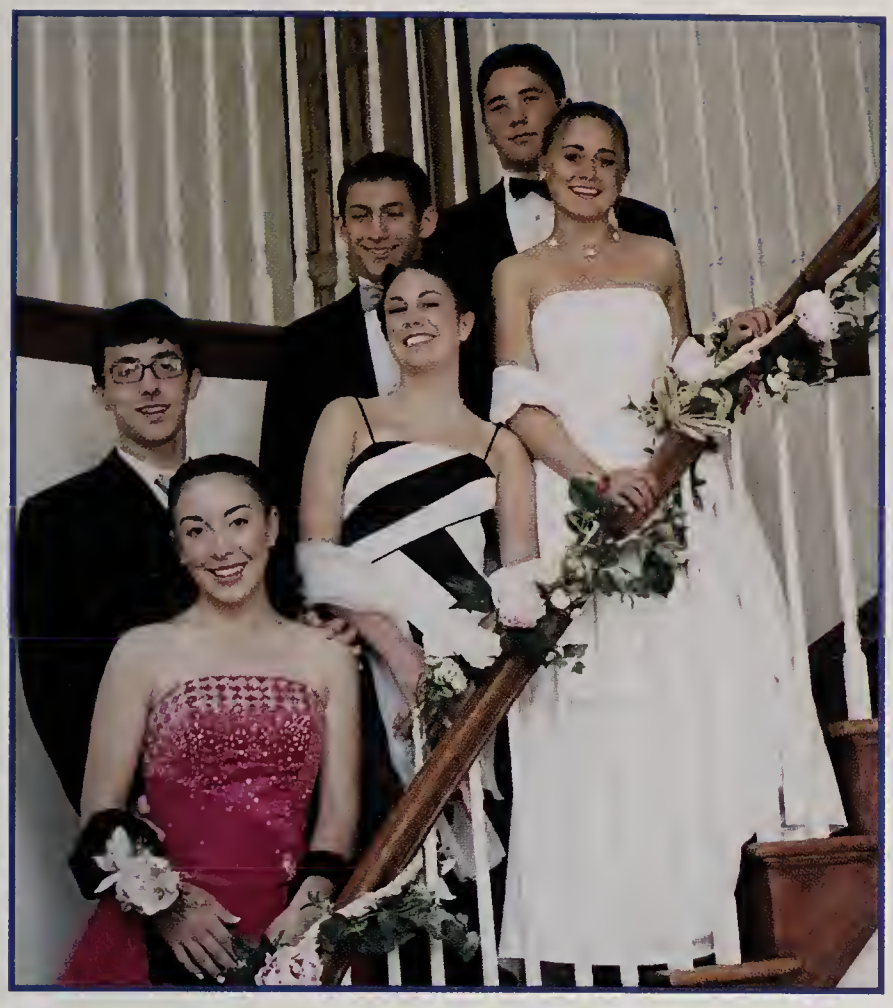
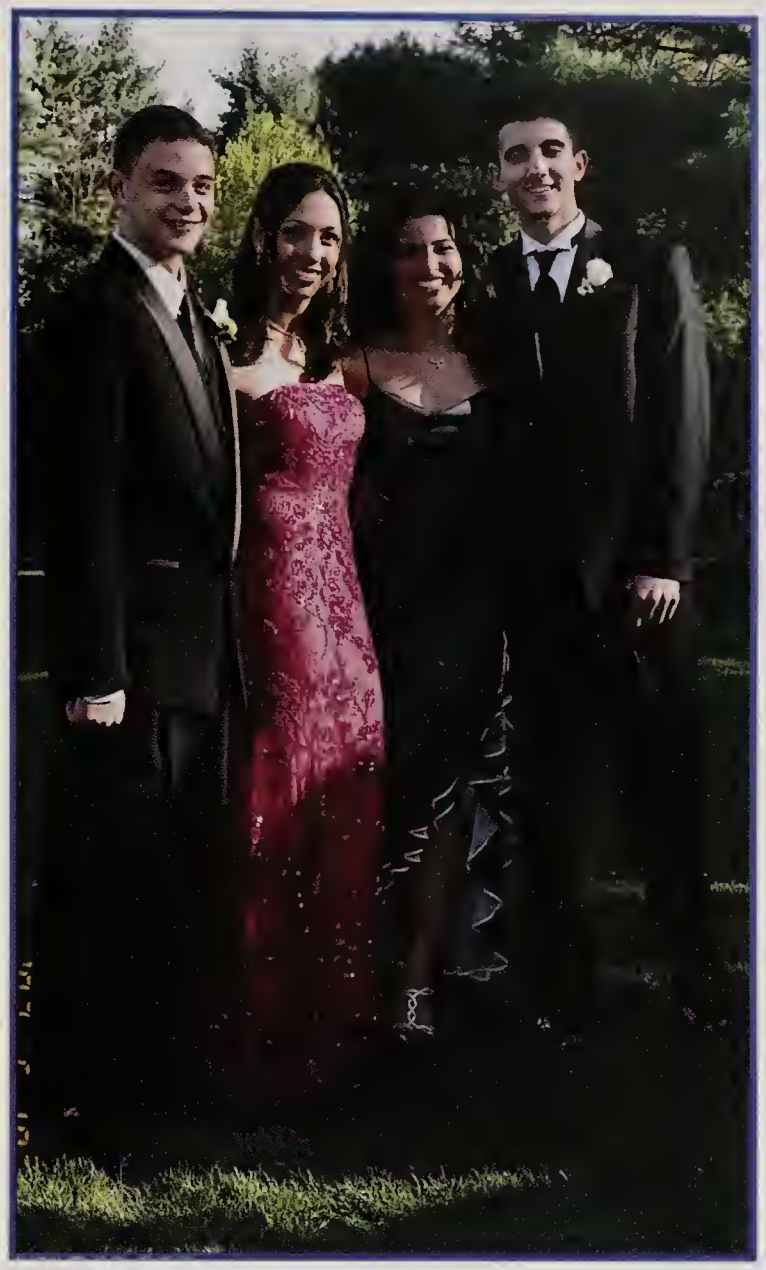
LIGHT IT UP. Rob Grant, Dan Daum, and John McCarthy charm the ladies with their style.





CAN'T HARDLY WAIT. Cate Howard-Teplansky, Anne Lettieri, and Dominique Maietta eagerly anticipate their Junior Prom.

SAVE THE LAST DANCE. Dan Daum, Allison Simeone, Steph Shaer, and Dave Welch are ready to dance the night away.

FLASHDANCE. These dance team members, Meena Bolourchi and Lindsay Brady, are ready to knock everyone's socks off on the dance floor.

MEN IN BLACK. Will Bendetson, James Wen, Brenden Lee, Wells Rotnem, Dave Zisson, Stefan Sieber, Matt Rice, Todd Horn, Ryan Merrill, and Everton Assis look snazzy in their tuxes and can't wait for the night to begin.

SHE'S ALL THAT. Good friends,Andrea Nahigian, Charlotte Jackson, Evan Cobb, Elle Anatole, Christina Camuzzi, Lisa Wigetman, and Rachel Ferguson, pose for prom pictures.

CHAIRMEN OF THE BOARD. Steph Friedlander and Kaitlin Machen are excited for the night after all of their hard work as Prom Co-Chairs.

Picture Perfect

Senior Candids

IT TAKES TWO. Katie Poutsiaka and Ashley Martin have been through it all and have remained the best of friends.

MOD SQUAD. Heather Anza and Cristina Sergi can always count on their boys. With Anthony Dowden, Charlie To, Pat Flynn, Chris Giovino and Bobby Wells, this group always has a good time together.

LEAN ON ME. These four girls have created a tight bond. Anne Slotnick can always count on Anna Harrison, Becca Solomont and Haley Kulow to pick her up.

MOST WANTED. Softball stars Katie Poutsiaka, Jess Chin, Carly Brush and Andrea Posa are wanted by the entire DCL as they shock everyone with their greatly improved team.

THE THREE MUSKATEERS. Dave Wrangham, Pete Kamm and Eli Horowitz have been inseparable throughout their school years.

NORTH SIDE REPRESENT. This group from the ghetto North side has bonded throughout the years of bus rides and carpools from elementary school all the way through high school.

WHERE THE HEART IS. Dominique Maietta, Cate Howard-Teplansky, Keenan McLaren and Caroline Dowd will always be able to count on each other.

SOUTHERN HOSPITALITY. After many years of close bonding, the Southern Westonians fight for thebelief that their side is really the best.

SPLASH. Allison Simeone, Erica Stutius, Brian Kelly, Katie Hagar, Chris Giovino, Asaad Bhamla, Anne Lettieri, Pat Flynn, Beth Yanco, Jen Young, Elise Patterson, and Camille Abelson know how to have fun in and out of the water.

LITTLE WOMEN. Liza Teich, Kate Ambash, and Anita Xie have become wonderful friends and are glad to have spent all of high school together.

SHINING THROUGH. Danielle Grossman, Sarah Kelly, Andrea Posa, Cristina Sergi, Elise Patterson, and Laurie DiMartino have become close friends after endless hours on the field hockey field.

RETURN TO ME. Sarah Benson, Liz Martin, Kat Anderson, Maura Mulvey and Becca Solomont know that they will always have each other, even after they graduate.

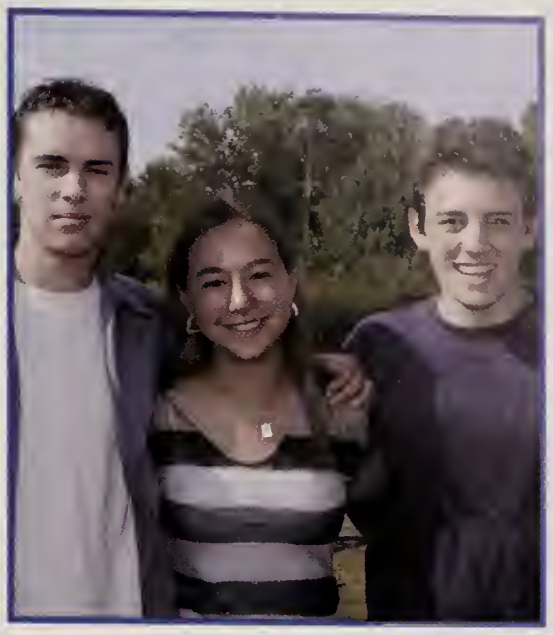
A GUY THING. James Wen, Mike Gilberto, Will Bendetson, Brenden Lee, Mark Petcavage, Mike Wertz and Aris Bidianos take time to chill.

STAND BY ME. Julie Angiolillo and Cheo Bourne have been through it all. From prom dates to theater company practices, they spend a lot of time together and will definately be friends forever.

GIRLS JUST WANNA HAVE FUN. Lisa Sharp, Katie Hagar, Camille Abelson, Beth Yanco, Cate Howard-Teplansky, Ada Lipkin and Catherine Riffin know how to have a good time wherever they end up.

WHAT WOMEN WANT. Steve Schofield and Wells Rotnem have figured out how to always make Sarah Benson smile.

SATURDAY NIGHT FEVER. Jesse Starr, Andrea Nahigian, Chuck Cormay, John McCarthy, Lisa Wigetman, Dan Daum, Chris MacDonald, Charlotte Jackson, Elle Anatole, Evan Cobb, Rachel Ferguson, Josh Kraus, Danny Fox, Belen Estacio and Christina Camuzzi are a great group of friends.



CAN'T HARDLY WAIT. Nick Cuneo, Anna Gossman, Ben Fox, Dave Wrangham, Pete Kamm, Julie Angiolillo, Martha Legocki, Eli Horowitz and Jamie Fernandez are glad to be seniors.

THE OUT OF TOWNERS. Martha Legocki welcomes the foreign exchange students: JC Tijou and Rafael Jacintho.

THE STORY OF US. So,
So you think you can tell
Heaven from Hell,
Blue skies from pain.
Can you tell a green field
From a cold steel rail?
A smile from a veil?
Do you think you can tell?
~ Pink Floyd

Mom, Dad and Alene I couldn't have been here if it weren't for you guys, And there is no way I could have had any where near as much fun as I did have if it weren't for my friends.

High school is over. 4 years long years of work has finally come to an end. 4 years of getting to know people and seeing them on a daily basis is over. It kinda sucks that a lot of us might never see each other again. That being said I hope that all of my friends (you all know who u are) stay well and end up having excellent lives. Hopefully I get to see u all some time in the future. All the members of the WHS debate team, keep working and make sure to represent the debate team well. Thanks to everybody who helped me along the way (u guys also know who u are) I appreciate it.

This is what you shall do: love the Earth and sun and animals, despise riches, give alms to every one that asks, stand up for the stupid and crazy, devote your income and labor to others, hate tyrants, argue not concerning God, have patience and indulgence toward the people, take off your hat to nothing known or unknown or to any man or number of men, go freely with powerful uneducated persons and with the young and with the mothers of families, read these leaves in the open air every season of every year of your life, re-examine all you have been told at school or church or in any book, dismiss whatever insults your own soul, and your very flesh shall be a great poem.

Kept me grounded every day and night,
Every day you were there for me,
Everything we've done, it's been so real,
Nothing will ever live up to us.
I love you babe! W/e you go, w/e I go, we'll always be us-no ocean can separate us.
Made life so much more enjoyable,
Anything n' everything u were always there,
Reliable, caring, kind you are so unique,
These few years, were awesome b/c of you,
Hope I made your life, as fun as u did mine.
Love you with all the love in the world!

People were against the idea of my writing "I am mad lazy this is my quote goodbye" So I decided to give them a little bit of advice on how to be happier: work less, sleep more. Do things because you want to do them. Love life. back to the quote...shout outs to YO,UR,EA,LL,MA,DU,MB. No one ever give the teachers credit for their job. I would like to thank them for their tireless efforts to keep us in line. I had a great time slacking off. I am glad its over. I would like to thank my friends for being who they are which is, assodd, a southerner, a porn fiend, truculent, a concert goer, a boy scout, and all the morally upright citizens, I also want to thank freshmen who pay for my food and all the people who help me be me

Congrats Class 2004! Thanx to all the teachers who cut us some slack and to those who didn't: your levity, sarcasm and wisdom were always appreciated. Most of all though-God, Ma, Daddy, Di, Jij, Hinddi-you guyz made my growth possible becuz ur love and inspiration were key to my success. I luv u all. Growing up with some gr8 ppl who esp. made me laugh when smilen was a burden-I wish u the best...ya u know who u r. The true lesson that will travel with me from HS is the value of love, life, diversity, devotion, leadership and fun. Failure isn't the end of the world ppl...

get over it. Thanx to those individuals who came into my life and respected my efforts as a person. Don't forget to smile until ur cheeks hurt ppl.-the power of a smile is unpredictable.

This year the Class of 2005 has been enormously successful. Brittany Thompson, Alene Aftandilian, Carissa Couper, Dan Strauss and Liz Callow led the class in several fantastic events . The Prom, "City Lights," was an enchanting evening at the Hilton Backbay in Boston. Trips to Jillians were also fun outings for everyone in the class. The juniors not only coordinated fun events for their grade, but they also donated much time and energy towards charity and helping those in need. Hosting the Special Olympics basketball tournament and donating thousands of dollars to less fortunate families in Haiti were among the charitable endeavors sponsored and led by the junior class.

The Sophomore Class has had many successful events. They raised money to donate to charity, and worked throughout the year to unite the class. The Sophomore Semi, held at Regis College, was a great success. With Geoff Smith, Jessica Young, Vivian Liu, Amy Bond and Genevieve LaFrance, the Class of 2006 had great leaders this year. Providing the class with opportunities to raise money for their prom and events for their senior year--such as the senior graduation trip--the sophomores did a wonderful job of working together while having a great time raising money.

FRESHMEN CLASS OFFICERS AND ADVISORS. Mrs. da Costa-Poremba, Mrs. Merrill, Charlie Flynn, Callan Carvey, Patrick Cremens, Renita Kim, and Mr. Escobar.

The Freshmen Class accomplished a lot in their first year at Weston High. They enjoyed numerous social events such as the "pot luck" dinner with parents of students in the class, a Halloween cruise on Boston Harbor, a Holiday party in December and several other social events through the spring. Along with enjoying the company of other class members, the freshmen took time to generate funds for their growing treasury. They sold fleece vests, held bake sales, and were the wait staff at the all-school Arctic Blast. In giving back to the community the Class of 2007 organized a walk to benefit cancer research, and hope to take over the Salvation Army community service project, as was done by this year's seniors. Led by Charlie Flynn, Callan Carvey, Patrick Cremens, Allison Webber, and Renita Kim, the freshmen this year were wildly successful.

Football

This year's football team was one of the strongest that Weston High School has seen in years. The seniors brought the team together and each one contributed to the success of the group. Tri-Captains Connor Cremens, Anthony Dowden and Eric Athas did a phenomenal job leading the team from late August all the way until the last game of their high school careers on Thanksgiving Day.

Although the loss to Wayland was disappointing, the team's success throughout the entire season was a better measure of its ability.

Other major contributors to the team, both on and off the field, included seniors: Pat Flynn, Steve Ryan, Bobby Wells, Miles Craigwell, Marcus Craigwell, Mike Stewart, Fred Hoang and Mina Ghaly.

With great assistance from the underclassman, the team has a solid foundation for next season.

A Building Season...

Boys Soccer

The Varsity Boy's Soccer Team had a frustrating season in which injuries came at frequent rates and staying tough and focused was really important. Although the team got off to a slow start, by the end of the season they were competing at the highest level.

The captains, Josh Kraus, Chuck Cormay and Matt Karasch really held the team together when they needed it most. The captains, along with the rest of the seniors: Jay Gillespie,Amar Dixit, Mike Wertz and Jesse Levitt, all provided much needed leadership to this inexperienced team. It was difficult to just miss the tournament yet again, particularly since the team had come so far since the beginning of the season.

The upperclassmen really improved the skills of the underclassmen and have left big shoes to be filled. However, the future seems promising and it definitely looks like this team is headed for the tournament next year.

JUMP JUMP JUMP. Freshman Eoin Power jumps high to head a flying ball and beat the other team to gain possession of the soccer ball.

DEFENSE WINS GAMES. Once again, freshman Mason White shows how his strong defense this season has kept all games very close.

SPEED AND SKILL. Tri-Captain Matt Karasch dribbles down the field with speed. His footwork is astounding and has helped the team through many tough games.

DETERMINATION. Mike Wertz runs down the field with determination, eager to gain possesion of the ball.

POWERKICK. Sophomore Drew Crowley beats an opposing player and kicks the ball down the field.

Girls Soccer

This year's soccer season was filled with many lasting memories of team experiences. Thanks to great coaching and support, the girls were able to come together and worked as a whole to achieve success.

The team was led by their six seniors, Kaitlin Machen, Kendall Davenport, Sarah Gefter, Ashley Russo and co-captains Lindsay Howard and Dana Marett. Their influential spirit and strong talent will be missed next season.

The team encountered many struggles as well as many triumphs. After eight consecutive losses to Westford Academy, the highlight of the season game when the team all pulled together to win 4-3. After making it past the first round of tournament Weston faced the number one seed, Lynnfield. Although Weston was eliminated in this round, they felt that they really gave it their all. Cross Country

The 2003 season of Girls XC started long before the first day of preseason, but by the end of November all the hard work put in by the team payed off.

The girl's team was third in their division at the Class D meet and qualified for the All-State Meet. With seniors Lane Marder, Catherine Riffin, Christiana Glenn, Martha Legoki and Marga Hutchenson, the team was led by a solid foundation of upperclassman.

The Boys XC Team also proved to have a successful season, led by seniors Asaad Bhamla, Chris Ecker, JC Tijou and others.

Both teams hope to continue their success in next year's season and wish good luck to the underclassmen.

Field Hockey

Weston Field Hockey 2003 is a season that will be remembered. The team did what others imagine doing, we went where others dream of going and we achieved goals that athletes from other sports hope one day to accomplish.

With an initial record of 3-3, we knew that we were going to have to play as a team in order to turn the season around. October 2nd was the day that happened. With a 5-0 victory over L-S, we proved what Weston Field Hockey was made of, showed the DCL our potential as a team, and demonstrated our commitment to winning play. From that game on, our season was a huge success: winning the DCL title for the fourth consecutive year, sweeping the North Sectionals for the third consecutive year, showing the desire and committment to win at Eastern Mass and returning again to Worcester for the State Final game.

It is each individual player and their love for the game that made this year such a success.

SENIORS. The six seniors--Elise Patterson, Laurie DiMartino, Danielle Grossman, Sarah Kelly, Andrea Posa and Cristina Sergi-- have become close friends in leading the team to success in the EMASS Finals.

BANQUET. Zoe C-T, Megan McCurdy, Liz Callow and Andrea Posa pose for a picture after the end of the season Banquet, a night to acknowledge accomplishments.

DEFENSE. Sarah Kelly recently stepped up this season as a sweeper and is shown here in a night game.

VICTORY. The team celebrates with its 3rd North Sectional Champsionship trophy in the past 3 consecutive years.

TEAM UNITY. Even after the season ended, the team stayed together to support Cristina Sergi and Andrea Posa.

SISTERS! Sisters Steph and Mary Abraham work together to beat a Concord-Carlise defender.

HARD WORK. Laurie DiMartino slips a long ball past a defender.

FREE HIT. Senior Andrea Posa sets up for a free hit against Duxbury.

SKILLS. Senior Co-Captain Cristina Sergi carries the ball across the field with dexterity in an early season game.

BRIGHT FUTURE. Sarah Wheeler, Courtney Schopfer, Rachel Gordon, Steph Abraham and Liz Callow are shown here at the banquet. With these five returning next year to lead the team of 2004, the future for success looks bright.

A Building Season

Golf

The 2003 Golf Season left much to be desired. The young team, with freshmen comprising nearly half of it, faced a challenging season. It was a rebuilding year for the co-captains, senior Rob Grant and sophomore Michael Stone, who both contributed to the success of the team as well as working hard to boost morale throughout the season.

However, the team was able to pull together during the various matches with each member demonstrating talent and commitment, never giving into defeat.

The team was extremely fortunate to have practices at both Leo J. Martin Golf Course and the Weston Country Club. The wonderful facilities and challenging courses helped the team members to improve throughout the entire season.

After creating a tight bond this year, the team eagerly anticipates a stronger season next fall.

SWING, SWING, SWING. There is nothing better to perfect your swing than working on it over and over again. With the assistance of swinging nets, used frequently, the boys were able to greatly improve their accuracy and stroke.

PRACTICE MAKES PERFECT. The boys got to improve their skills at amazing golf courses throughout the area during each practice, and they needed to make sure they worked the little things, such as putting, that can make or break the game.

THE BIG THREE. Freshman Tommy Cassell, Michael Alperin and Sam Grossman were three important forces on the golf team this fall season. Each boy stepped up the challenge and made a big difference in the team's season.

SUPERSTAR. Sophomore James Stone showed that an underclassman can be the best player on the team. Stone racked up large amounts of points for the team and went on as the DCL All-Star representative for the squad.

CAPTAIN LEADERSHIP. Co-Captains James Stone and Robert Grant lead the team not only through leadership, but also through skill, as both of these young men proved to improve their skills greatly and help the team in every way.

LEARNING FROM OTHERS. Like all other sports, when one watches their teammates play, one can learn from their achievements and failures. Here, players watch on as a teammate sets up for a swing, learning which angles are perfect and which position is ideal.

Hate to Lose

Boys Basketball

The Basketball Team agreed that their record definitely did not reflect how much talent was on the team. Team bonding was very tight and impacted performance on the court. The senior leadership was very strong and lead by Captains Marcus Craigwell, and Dave Welch. Constructive criticism from the coaches was appreciated and everyone learned from it. The beginning of the season started off a little shaky, but the team finished strong to achieve a regular season record of 10-10. Although disappointed at their loss in the first round of the tournament to Lynn Tech, the boys met several important goals: a .500 record, team unity, and having fun. The team came a long way from the beginning to the end of the season, and the nine graduating seniors will be sure to miss the great experience of the basketball team of 2004.

TIME OUT. The team listens to Coach Finnigan's tips during a time out.

Girls Basketball

This year's season was challenging because the team lost several games that it had the potential to win. However, toward the end of the season, the team picked up its intensity. The games played in the second half of the season were generally closer and you could see a clear difference in team play.

The highlight of the season was beating Concord Carlilse at their gym. It was sweet revenge for losing our home opener to them by one point.

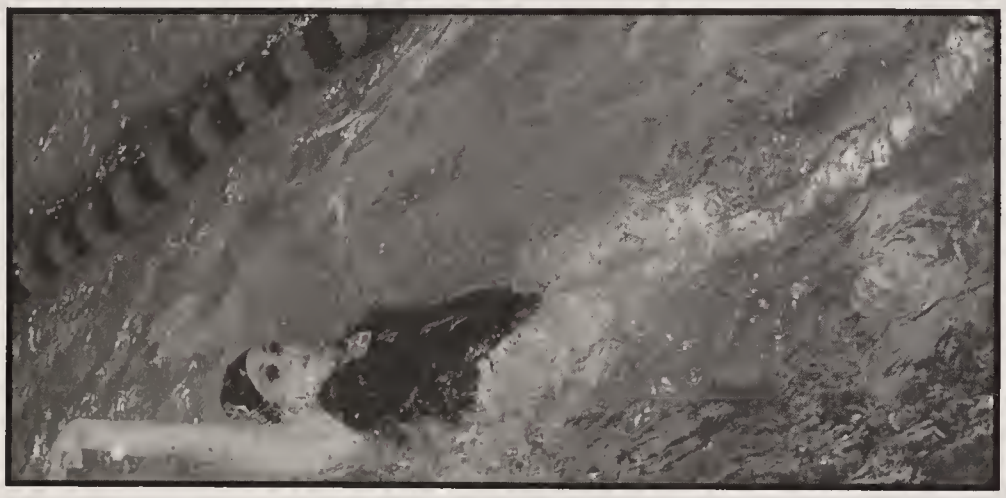
Off the court, this year's team connected extraordinarily well. Everyone from different grades and groups in school came together and formed tight friendships. Senior leadership from Captains Danielle Grossman, Rebecca Odell, Andrea Posa and Sally Pendergast was key.

The underclassmen also contributed a lot to the team's success with every single person making an impact.

Always on Top

Swimming

The Red Tide was extremely successful in 2003-2004. An undefeated Dual Meet season was followed by record setting Championship meets. DCL Championships were followed by the Sectional Title for both the boys and girls, and an unprecedented 1st-2nd-3rd place finish in the 100 freestyle for the guys. The State Meets, at MIT for the boys and Northeastern for the girls, both proved to be successful, and were the culmination of a season of hard work. The boys once again finished first in the State and the girls came in at a very deserved second place. The senior leadership led the Red Tide to one of the most successful seasons in Tide History. The four captains, Asaad Bhamla, Brian Kelly, Katie Hagar and Elise Patterson supported the team throughout the season with the additional help of the other seniors. Congratulations on a wonderful season, and keep up the hard work for years to come.



WORKING IT. Chris Giovino tries his hardest during practice in preparation for the next meet.

Running through it all...

Indoor Track

This season was very successful for both the Boys and Girls Indoor Track Teams. Mary Abraham, Christiana Glenn, Lane Marder, and Alison Ritter, the girls' 4 x 800 team, were undefeated Massachusetts State Champions. Catherine Riffin, Corrin Marquardt and Rachel Gordon were strong in the distance events, while Dana Marett excelled in the shot-put. The girls team also had help from Courtney McLaren, Steph Bazile, and Kristin Chan. On the boys' side, Chris Ecker shined in the distance events along with Jean-Charles Tijou, Doug Garron, Tucker Skenderian and Richard Cipolla. John Condakes, Arjun Collins, and Andy Dallos also dominated their respective events and Ben Megargel, Ben Rogers and Jason Oberg provided the boys team with some crucial points in the DCL meets.

DETERMINATION. Senior Chris Ecker keeps a steady pace throughout the race and keeps his eye on the finish line. During his high school running career, Chris has made many valuable contributions to the track team.

FOCUS. Senior Pat Bagley, an important asset to the track team, focuses on beating the person running in front of him.

Wrestling

The Wrestling Team had a somewhat rocky start with a few early losses. Coaches Dave Baldanza, Kevin Thomas, and Chuck Grant managed to get the team back on track and the team ended with a more than respectable record. The Cats were led by senior captains Aaron Horowitz, Steve Ryan, and Anthony Dowden, each showing impressive performances throughout the season. Seniors Watson Sallay, Jesse Starr, Fred Hoang, Charlie To, and James Wen provided the backbone of the varsity lineup. Dowden placed first at multiple tournaments and third in the state championship. Horowitz got his third sectional title, placed first in the state, was an All State finalist, and placed fifth in the New England Championships. Great potential was seen from junior John McCarthy and sophomore James Toy. Both should do well next year and lead the Wildcats to success.

Fall Play: "The Suicide"

This year's season began with a hilarious production of Nikolai Erdman's Soviet farce, "The Suicide". The show featured the largest cast and enjoyed the largest audiences ever for a fall play. The winter production, "The UncertainTea Principle," was an original play written by the seventeen member acting ensemble. It garnered awards at the Massachusetts High School Drama Festival. The spring musical was "Kiss Me Kate", Cole Porter's jazzy and witty take on Shakespeare's "Taming of the Shrew." The season ended in June with the annual Cabaret Night. Congrats to senior Luke Taylor for winning the Boston Shakespeare Competition-- representing Massachuesetts at Lincoln Center in the National Competition.

YEARBOOK

PANORAMA 2004 --- "NOW AND THEN"

Beth Yanco

Cate Howard-Teplanksy

This year we had a lot of fun working together to come up with the cover, theme, and design for the yearbook. Although it proved to be a lot of work, with many Saturdays and vacation days spent in the yearbook office, we think it was all worth it.

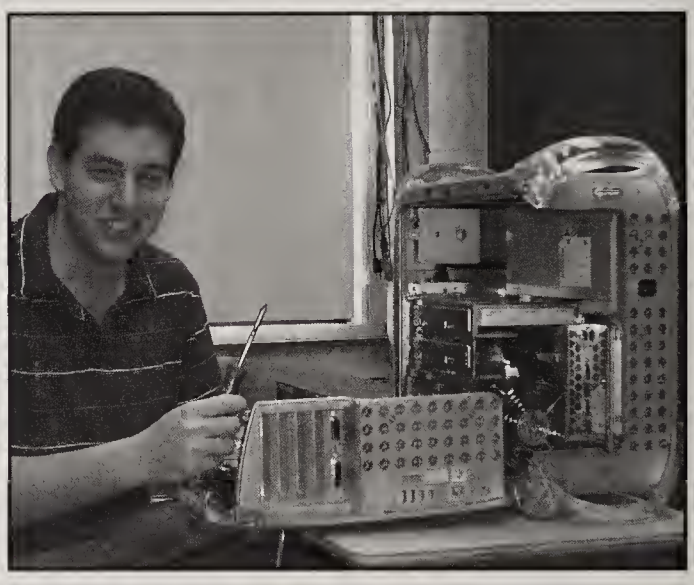
Our theme, the movies, was carried throughout the book with the title, Now and Then, the film strips on the cover, the boards on the divider pages, the film box at the bottom of the pages, and the movie titles as caption leads in the senior section and closing section.

Our staff was great! It was mainly comprised of seniors, and without them the book would not have been possible to complete! We thank them all for putting in so much time and effort.

In the end, we produced a book of which we are immensely proud!

We hope you all enjoy it!

- Cate and Beth



Message From Mrs Nick:

Working with the students who create the yearbook continues to be a challenge each year -but such an exciting one. Thanks to all who helped. Students who enjoy looking at and reading the book, should join the staff next year!

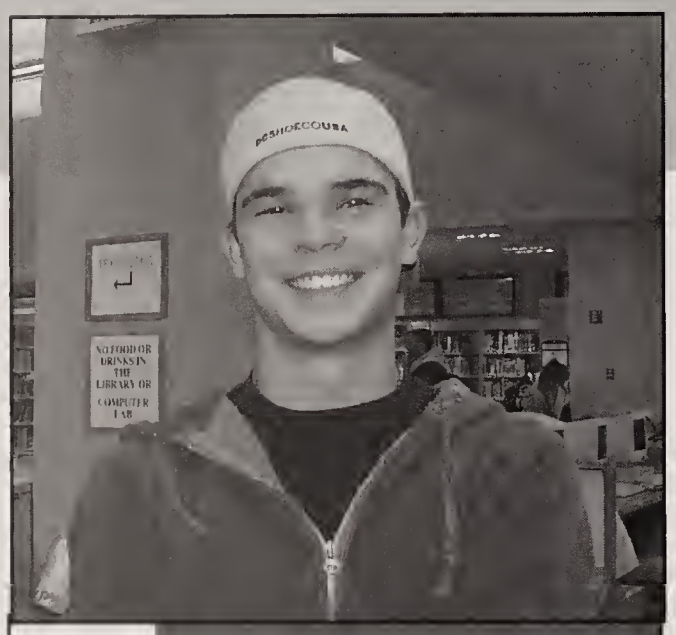
Memorable Moments



Dave Wrangham -
It was great to think of ideas for the assemblies. I really enjoyed working with the Student Council.

Eli Horowitz -
Being Co-President with Dave was one of my favorite high school experiences.

This year was filled with many great events. All of the assemblies were memorable, from the frosh sled racing, to the elbox boxing match, and the Mario Kart race; Eli and Dave always entertained the school in a new and creative way. Barbeque week was a new addition to the school's activities, culminating in a catered Barbeque dinner from Tennessee. The Artic Blast, the new all-school auction and talent show, was a great way to bring the faculty and all the grades together. The dances were a lot of fun, including the bonfire, the holiday dance and the Valentines Dance. Dave and Eli did a wonderful job making this year unforgettable.

SUPER MARIO BROTHERS. Belen Estacio, Ian Wrangham, and Dan Shaer participate in the Mario Kart scooter race.

COOL RUNNINGS. Chris Giovino, Brian Kelly, Krister Svenson, Todd Horn, Tucker Wetmore, and Asaad Bhamla represent the Swim Team and Weston at the Thanksgiving football game.

POWDER PUFF GIRLS. The Senior girls huddle up to discuss strategy during the intense Powder Puff game.

FLASHDANCE. Lindsay Brady, Maura Mulvey, Jaime Alexandra Gaudet, Evan Cobb and Lauren Sonnabend perform at The Arctic Blast.

BEAN. Travis Anza, Jesse Anza, Scott Whittenberger, , Michele Castellucci eat a hardy Barbeque meal.

MY GIRL. Seth Furey-Jones sings and woos the ladies at the Black History Month Assembly.

STYLES AND TRENDS

Four popular trends this school-year were the freezing cold weather, Juicy sweatsuits, Von Dutch trucker hats and Patriots Superbowl champion shirts.

The 2003-2004 school year has seen many trends come to life.

Until this year, no one would consider wearing a trucker hat, let alone consider it a new fad. However, Von Dutch has taken over the hatting industry, as both famous celebrities and Weston High students alike can be seen wearing all the styles.

Uggs are a new footwear that came out this year, and can be very cute with either a new pair of jeans or a cute skirt.

Another rage this year was the new show, the OC. In contrast to all of the reality shows, this TV program about life in Orange County California is refreshing and addictive.

Another popular media event was the opening of the third movie in the "Lord of the Rings" series. Many theaters offered all-day movie marathons to support this fad. Sports in Boston were huge this year, with team successes from both the Patriots and the Red Sox.

A hot spot where Weston High Students can be found during meal times is Panera, renowned for its delicious salads, sandwiches and soups.

One final "trend" of the year was the freezing cold temperature that would not seem to go away! Unfortunately, this cold weather did not bring the snow with it.

This year, the senior class set a new trend on Valentines Day, sending fake roses that will last forever, instead of the typical carnations.

The senior girls decided to be trendsetters and design Powder Puff sweatshirts and sweatpants to wear during the annual game.

"Cowboy Up" was the Red Sox slogan for the year. This year was a heartbreaker for Red Sox fans as the team lost the playoffs in Game 7.

PHENOMENON. Uggs were the new fashion this year. They were in high demand, people often had to go on waiting lists to purchase them, and could be seen worn by various students a Weston high.

AMERICA'S SWEETHEARTS. The OC became the most popular show among Weston High students this year. Both girls and boys were drawn to the drama of Ryan, Seth, Summer, Anna, Oliver and Marissa.

RINGMASTER. The third Lord of the Rings came out this year and rekindled a following for the series. It earned 11 Academy Awards, including Best Picture.

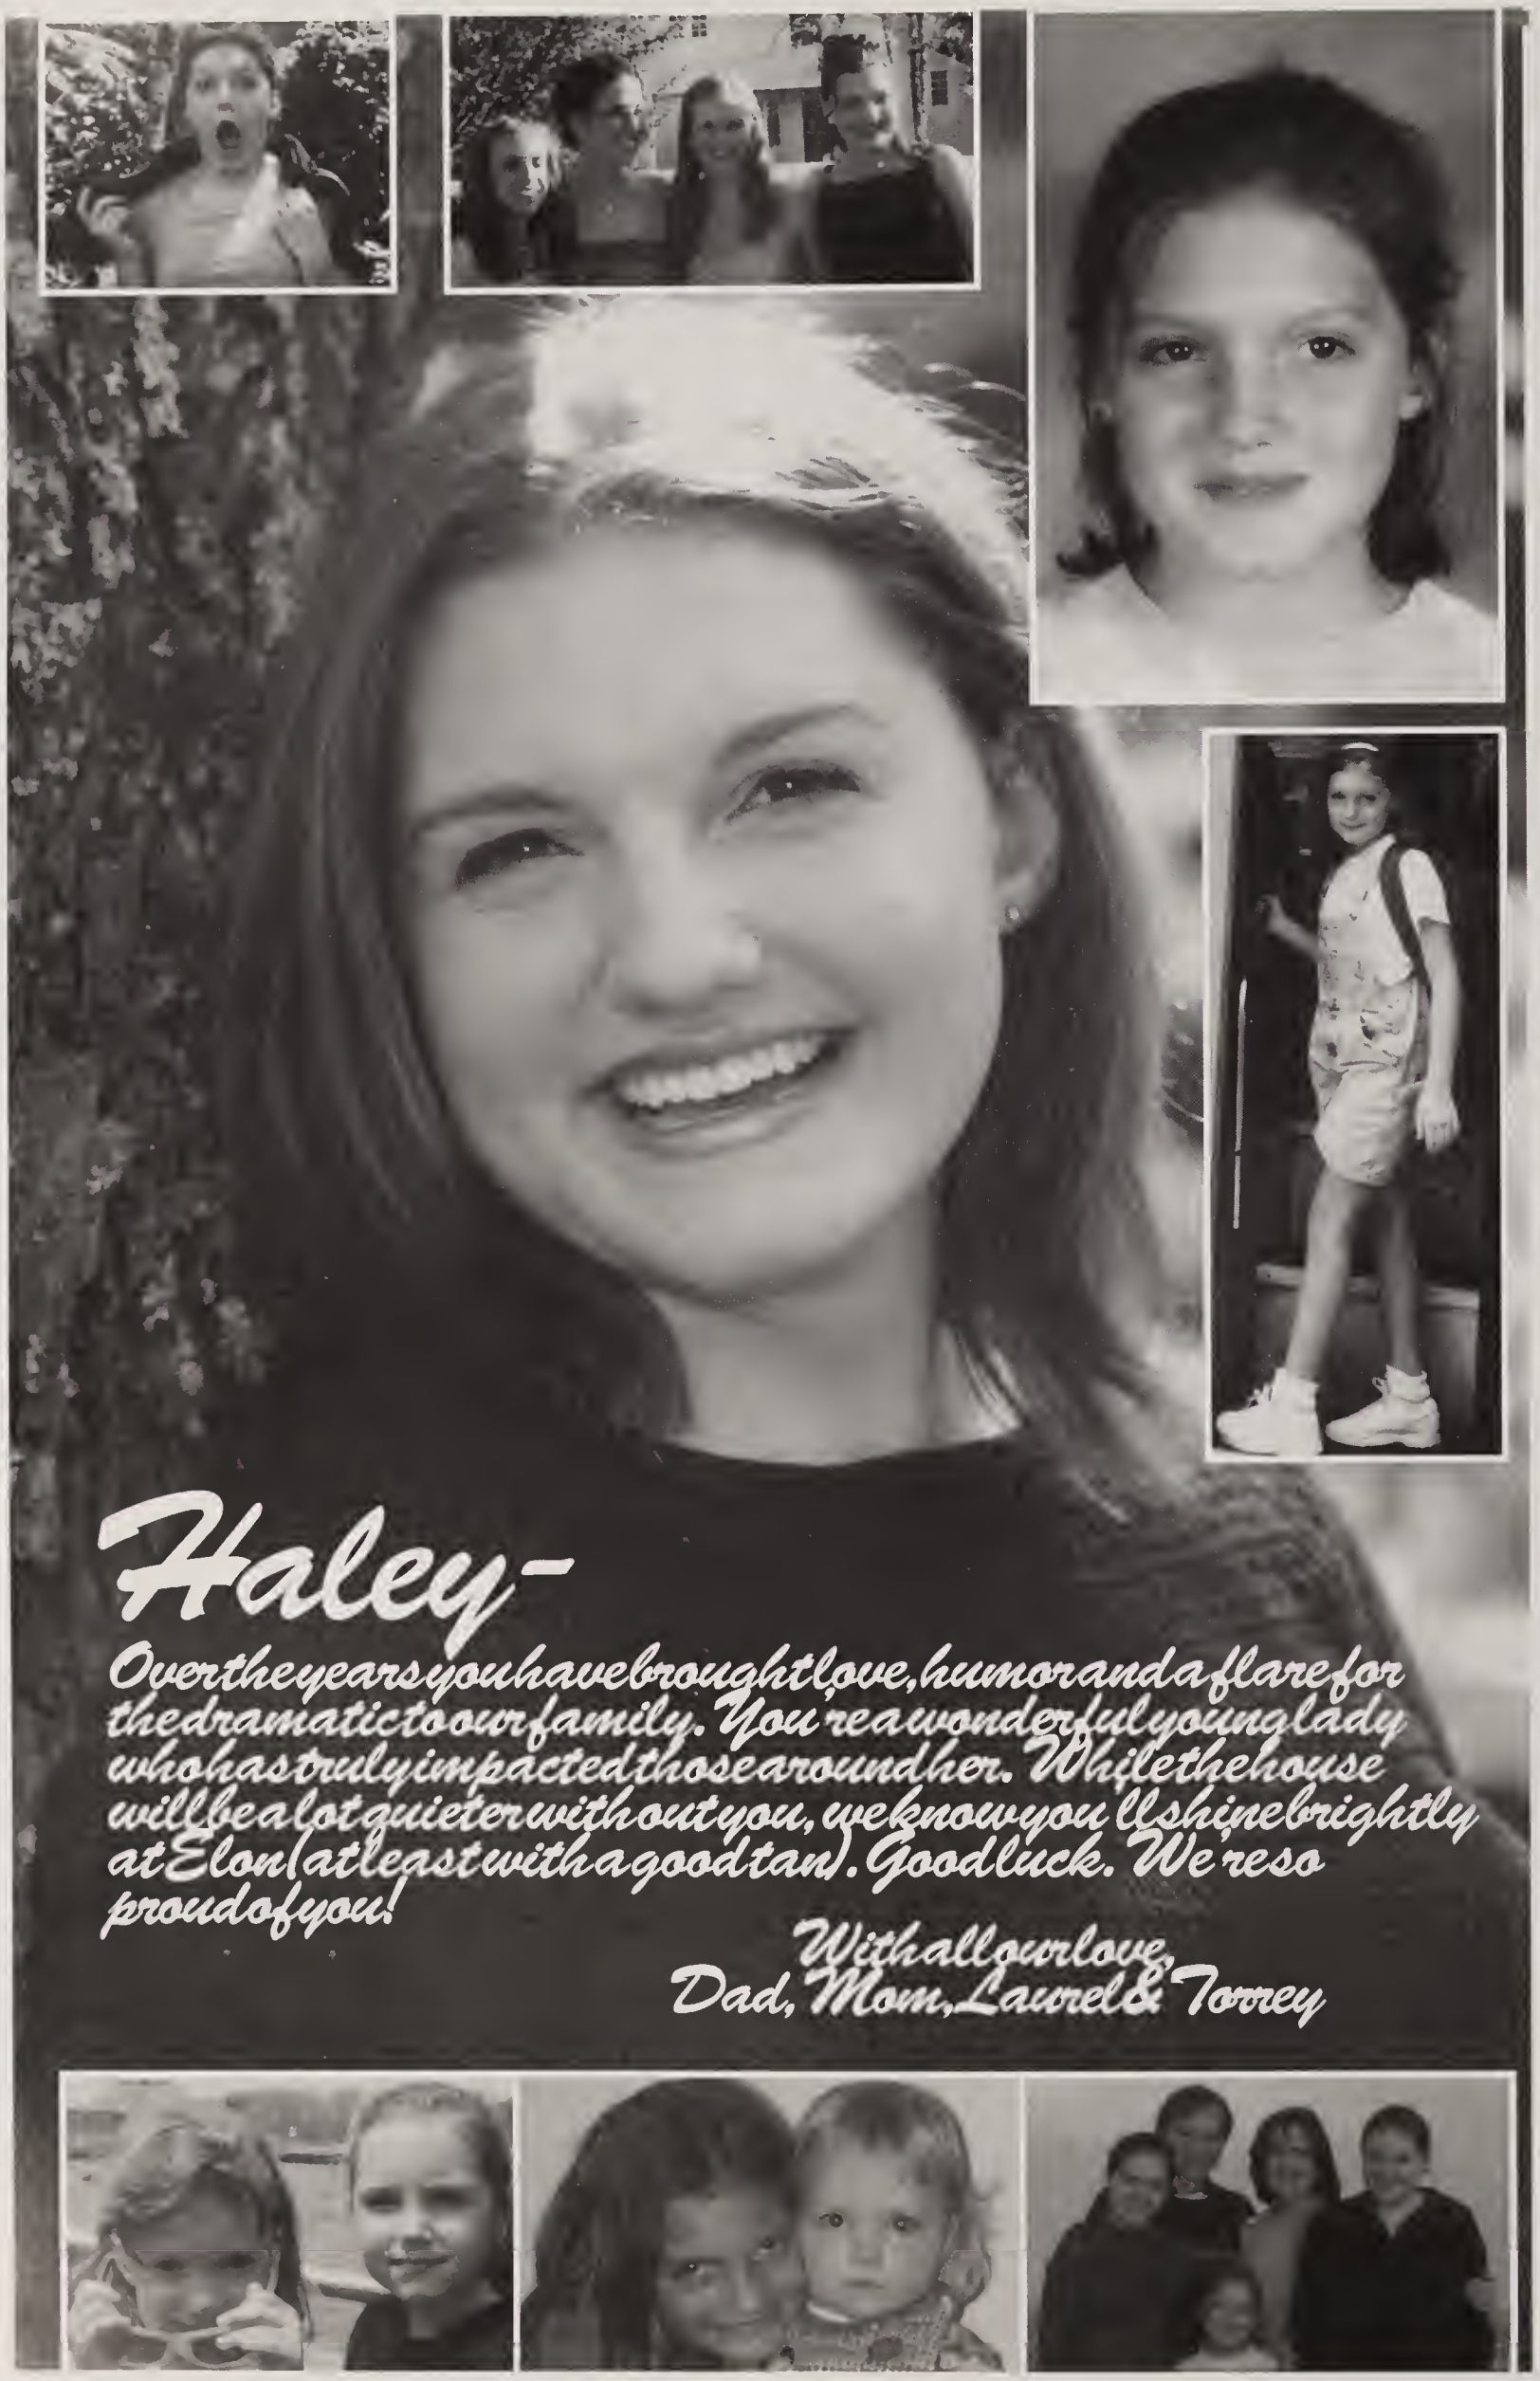
Danielle

We have watched you become an extraordinary person who has made a positive difference in the lives of so many people. You embody the principle that determination and hard work breeds success. We are incredibly proud of you and know that your college years and beyond will be fantastic.

We love you very much.

MMMMWWWAAAHHH!!!!!!!

Mom, Dad, Sam and Cisco



Haley-

Over the years you have brought love, humor and a flare for the dramatic to our family. You're a wonderful young lady who has truly impacted those around her. While the house will be a lot quieter without you, we know you'll shine brightly at Elon (at least with a good tan). Good luck. We're so proud of you!

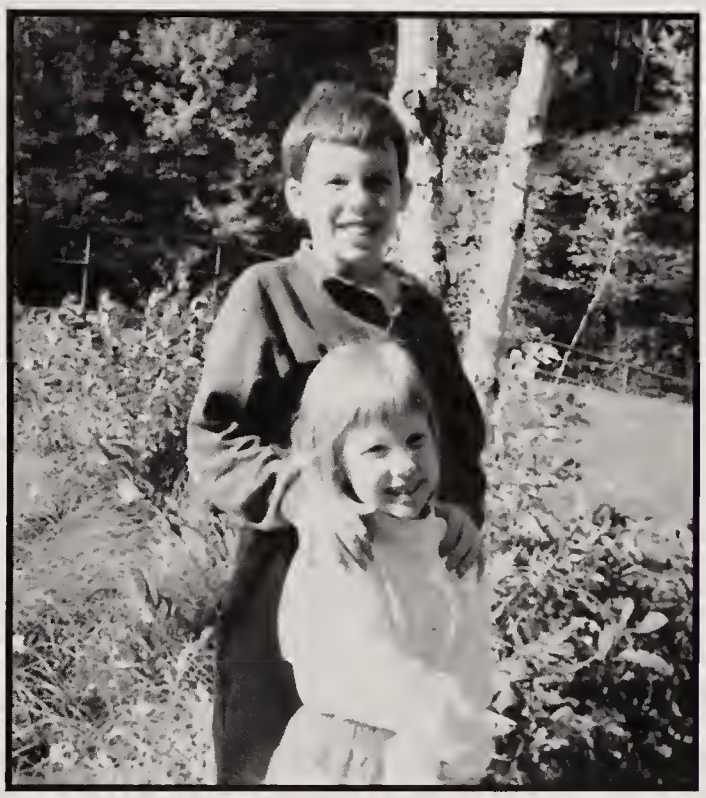
With all our love,
Dad, Mom, Laurel & Torrey

Bart McGuire

Dear Bart,

So many wonderful years, and so many more to look forward to. We all so happy for you, and very proud of you. Don't forget Exit 18 off 89 is always on the way home. And while it's usually sunny, cloud cover is never far from Hanover.

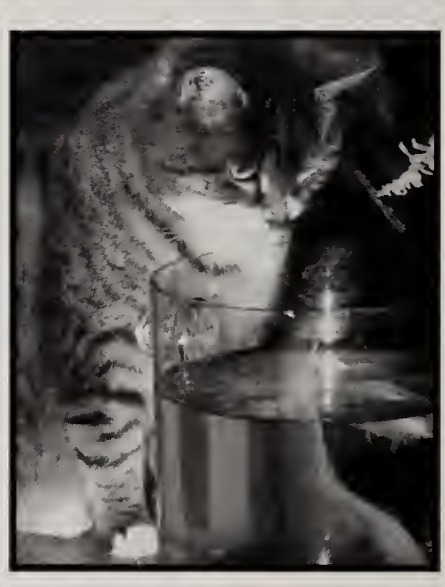
Love,
Mom, Dad, Shay and Ellie



Sally Pendergast

Our Sweet Sal,

We are so proud how you have blossomed into such a vibrant caring and dedicated young woman...it's been a joy watching you grow up! Keep your passion for life and you will experience wonderful things. Listen to your heart Sal...you know what's best. We're definitely going to miss your enthusiasm around the house but we are eager to see where it will take you in the future. Never forget the importance of family and friends...and travel knowing we are with you in spirit. Love, Mummy and Dad



Sals,

I am so proud of you and what a selfless person you have turned out to be. You give all your free time to others without any second thought. I hope that wherever you end up next year will bring you much happiness. Good luck and don't forget to leave time to have fun!

I Love you, LeeLee

Salznuts, You have always been there to teach me right from wrong. I will miss you so much when you leave to college. It was a great experience living with such a wonderful sister like you. Remember I will always be your little sister and that will never change.

Much Love, Georgia

Carla Castellucci

"Like the morning sun over the horizon, you shine with possibility."
We could not be prouder of you and your accomplishments. Best of luck in the future, and remember, we are always there for you.

May the road rise to meet you. May the wind be always at your back. May the sun shine warm upon your face, the rains fall soft uopn your fields and, until we meet again may God hold you in the palm of his hand.

An Irish Blessing

Dear Amar,

Congratulations! I know that you will continue to strive for your dreams and reach your goals. It is strange how you are finally going off to college since I will always think of you as my LITTLE brother. Good luck in the future. Love you!!

Sapna

Dear Amar,
Congratulations!
We wish you the very best in life and hope you achieve all your goals and succeed in all aspects. Our blessings will be with you. Go for the Everest!! Pyar sahitt!!!

For Caroline, CFD & Cazzie:

You are the most extraordinary daughter and sister we could ever imagine. We have loved watching you develop from an effervescent, high-spirited girl to a beautiful, vivacious young woman. We admire the way you attack life. Your unbridled exuberance is contagious. Your commitment, dedication and love of swimming has had a wonderful effect on your life. Your exceptional success in the pool has created unique opportunities for you. We look forward to seeing you swim at Yale. More than anything, your profound love of family is a palpable feeling that deeply affects all of us. While we will miss you dearly when you leave for college, we will wondrously anticipate the next chapter in your life. We could not be more proud nor could we love you any more than we do.

Mom, Dad, Robert, Ryan and Patrick

Congratulations Anne

We are so proud of you, the daughter, the sister, the friend, the student, the actress, the musician.
We love every minute of being your parents and watching you grow into the loving, caring, accomplished young woman that you are.
We know you have a wonderful future ahead.
May all your dreams come true!

Pat Flynn

To our "Patman" or, in family circles, "lovable Pat"-
We have been blessed to have you as a son and brother!
As you leave us, we wish:

that you continue to find joy in everything that you do;
that you never lose that terrific smile and sense of humor;
that you remain sensitive and caring;
that you keep your faith;
that you take advantage of your many gifts; and that you stay close to friends and family.

Know that we will always be here for you and that you are deeply loved!

Mom and Dad
Anne, Rosemary, Charlie and Gill

Congratulations Anna!

Thanks for 18 wonderful years.
You are blessed with talent, brains and a sweet nature. We know you will rise to life's challenges and also find time to watch the clouds fly by!

JESSE DAVID STARR

The important thing is not to stop questioning. Curiosity has its own reason for existing. One cannot help but be in awe when he contemplates the mysteries of eternity, of life, of the marvelous structure of reality. It is enough if one tries merely to comprehend a little of this mystery every day. Never lose a holy curiosity. -Albert Einstein

You were once a new butterfly magically arriving to us on Weston's spring's breeze.
Below a flood of crab apple blossoms
you grew that sunny spring moving to harmonies of fluttering wings.
Each season
wings strengthened
as you ascended challenges, absorbed reverses.
Those wings strong with certainty are now poised to sail you beyond among breezes of your choice to your own flight of adventure...
We love you, Mom, Dad and Liz

Congratulations Jamie

Dear Jamie,

Your bright smile, positive attitude and your caring personality will make a difference in your life. Whatever road you choose to travel, remember we will be there always for you. You have many talents and great abilities
You have big goals and knowledge of reaching them.
You enjoy working hard and having fun.
You are ready for your own life that
Will be full of events and achievements,
Because you are in charge.

You have a big heart and big dreams,
You are beautiful, you have great taste and style
You are a wonderful person and
You always make us feel proud of you.

Challenges come and challenges go,
Braved when you have a strong wish to achieve.
We enjoyed seeing you grow.
It's tough for us to see you leave.

Not always simple, as sometimes it seems,
Life is full of tricks and treats,
Wish you luck and countless sweets
Of always reaching your biggest dreams!

We wish you luck and all the best in the world.

Much Love, Mom and Dad

It's impossible to imagine not being to see you every day. Call, call, call...

Amy

From Guilford to Clayton to Weston, through success and hardship, with courage, wit, and strength, you have brought joy to our family. Your parents are very proud of you, and your siblings look to you for guidance and strength. You have grown into an amazing young woman, sensitive to the needs of others, giving of yourself, and first off the bungy jump at Rotorua and the Kawarau bridge. May the love of your family be the cord that secures you as you take the leap into college and life beyond Weston.
Love Dad, Mom, Sarah, Jenny, Ben and Sam

I have two things to say Amy. When we were in Rotorua, how crazy you were to bungee jump off a crane, 60 feet above a stream. Wow! You sure have courage. Plus the fact that you've been an amazing sister ever since the day I was born.

My life would be incredibly dull if you weren't my sister!
Love, Ben

Amy, when I get mad you are the one who makes me the happiest, and thank you for loving me.

Amers,
This picture of us on the bikes is one of my favorites...You know why? Because for once I am taller than you! Wishful thinking, but seriously, it's strange to say that I admire and look up to my younger sister, but it's true. You are my source of inspiration, comfort, strength and amusement, and I am so lucky to have you as my sister and best friend, My fondest memories consist of you, me, some cruisers or chais, bungee jumps, accents (any kind will do!), starry nights in the outback, and a few Surreal ice cubes. You are my favorite person on earth and no matter how far apart we may travel, you will always be my first phone call, closest confidant and much needed fashion consultant. Don't forget our future apartments on the same block and finger tattoos...oh and please refrain from biting any more glasses. I love you so much. Good luck and Cheers! -Sars

Amy, we have gone through so much together, thank you for always being there for me, as both a sister and friend. So many memories: Phantom Planet concert, Australia, New Zealand, Bungee-jumping, snorkeling on the Barrier Reef, LOTR, boys (Benico), day trips to Cape Cod, and so much more. I have become so close to you over the past few years, which makes it even harder to see you go off to college, it went by too fast! I love you and look up to you more than you know, Good Luck! Carolyn,
Packing your stuff for college this summer is going to be more difficult than you think; you are going to have to empty two closets full of clothes, yours and mine. No matter many times you tell me "this is mine," it magically appears in my possession. You share everything with me and you always give the best advice. I will miss going "next door" every five minutes, sometimes just to talk. The transition to high school was so easy for me because you were there. I am so lucky to have you for a sister and I will miss having you around everyday...So, I've decided to convince Mom and Dad to have you commute to BC next year!!!
Love always, Pamela

Matt

We named you Matthew, a named derived from an earlier translation meaning "Gift from God".

We didn't know about the wondrous gifts the "Gift" would possess.

We didn't know about your incredible courage, whether it was physical courage grinding down near impossible rails on skates, or mental courage overcoming difficult life obstacles.

We didn't know about the driving creative intelligence that would blend together the high-tech world of music, video, and art.

We didn't know about the caring sense of humor from a very large heat.

We, including Mom, now know about these gifts and we love you for them now and forever.

And soon, the world will know about these gifts.
